

Dear Shareholder,

RESOURCES RISING STARS + MININGNEWS.NET INVESTOR CONFERENCE

INVITATION TO ATTEND

As a valued shareholder of Nexus Minerals (ASX: NXM), we are delighted to extend an invitation to you to attend the upcoming Resources Rising Stars + Miningnews.net Investor Conference, where Andy Tudor, Managing Director of Nexus Minerals, will be presenting.

Dates: Thursday 14th and Friday 15th October

Venue: Granite Room, RAC Arena, Perth

The Boom in a Room will feature presentations from more than 40 high-growth resources companies, an exclusive keynote address from Australian Future Fund Chairman Peter Costello AC and a resources market update by top fund manager Hedley Widdup.

The event provides a unique opportunity for investors to meet directly with mining company CEOs and senior management, with a booth exhibition area and multiple networking events.

This Perth event will be live-streamed to a global audience through our event partner, MiningNews.net, a highly-respected and globally-trusted source of information on the Australian mining industry.

A copy of the full conference program is enclosed.

Attendance is free of charge and includes morning and afternoon tea, lunch and networking drinks. However places are strictly limited and registration is essential.

For further information and to register, please visit the conference website at <https://www.rrsinvestor.com/site/content/>

We hope to see you in Perth or online!

Yours sincerely,

The team at Resources Rising Stars
