NOTES:

These notes are for the guidance of persons preparing a notice. They are not part of the form.

The voting shares of a company constitute one class unless divided into separate classes.

A copy of the notice must be given to the company's home stock exchange on the same day that the notice is given to the company (Section 713). If additional space is required to complete a question, the information may be included on a separate piece of paper attached to the form.

- A If there are a number of substantial shareholders with similar or related entitlements (eg, a corporation and its related corporations, or the manager and trustee of an equity trust), the names could be included in an annexure to the form. If the relevant interests and entitlements of a group of persons are essentially similar, they may be referred to throughout the form as a specifically named group if the membership of each group, with the names and addresses of members, is clearly set out in paragraph 6 of the form.
- B See Section 609 on "entitlement to shares".
- C See the definitions of "associate" in sections 10 to 17 of the Corporations Law.
- D See the definitions of "relevant interest" in relation to shares in sections 30 to 45 of the Corporations Law.
- E Show particulars of:
 - (a) any relevant agreement (see section 9 of the Corporations Law) or other circumstances by which the relevant interest was acquired. If subregulations 6.7.01(1) applies, a copy of the agreement or understanding, or a memorandum giving full particulars, must accompany this form, together with a written statement certifying the copy or memorandum; and
 - (b) any qualification of the power of a person to exercise, control the exercise of, or influence the exercise of, the voting powers or disposal of the shares to which the relevant interest relates (indicating clearly the particular shares to which the qualification applies).
- F If the substantial shareholder is unable to determine the identity of the person, eg if the relevant interest arises because of an option, write "unknown".
- G Details of the consideration must include any and all benefits, money and other, that any person from whom a relevant interest was acquired has, or may, become entitled to receive in relation to that acquisition. Details must be included even if the benefit is conditional on the happening or not of a contingency. Details must be included of any benefit paid on behalf of the substantial shareholder or its associate in relation to the acquisitions, even if they are not paid directly to the person from whom the relevant interest was acquired.
